Plaintiff’s Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

I. Introduction

Plaintiff Seneca Resources Corporation (“Seneca Resources”) brought this action to challenge the constitutionality, enforceability, and validity of the Home Rule Charter (the “Charter”) in Highland Township. Named as Defendants to this action are: Highland Township and the Township’s Board of Supervisors.

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff’s motion for judgment on the pleadings. ECF No. 26. For the following reasons, the motion will be GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART.

II. Relevant Procedural History

Seneca Resources is a Pennsylvania corporation engaged in oil and natural gas exploration and production in various locations within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including Highland Township in Elk County. In January of 2014, Seneca Resources received a permit from the United States Environmental Protection Agency to convert an existing natural gas well into an underground injection control well (UIC). The company began work soon thereafter on securing a permit from the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection. An application was submitted to the DEP in November of 2014.

While Seneca Resources was engaged in the permitting process, Highland Township adopted an ordinance which, among other things, made it unlawful for corporations to deposit, store, treat, inject or process waste water, "produced" water, "frack" water, brine or other materials, chemicals or by-products that have been used in the extraction of shale gas onto or into the land, air, or waters within Highland Township. This prohibition specifically applied to UICs. Ordinance 1-9 of 2014, § 4(a). In January of 2015, Township supervisors notified the state DEP of the Township's position that the federal EPA permit was invalid as a result of this ordinance and that any permit the DEP issued would be equally unfounded. For its part, Seneca Resources notified the DEP of its contention that the ordinance was unconstitutional and invalid under federal and state law. The DEP, however, suspended its review of Seneca's application<sup>2</sup> and, to date, has not issued a permit to Seneca Resources.

This letter is to inform you that the Department has suspended its review of your permit application ... [A] conflict between this project and an ordinance adopted by Highland Township entitled Community Bill of Rights Ordinance (Highland Township Ordinance) has been brought to our attention. ... The Department is aware that you are disputing the validity of this local ordinance in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania (Dkt. No. 1:15-60). The Department also recognizes that there is a serious question regarding the constitutional validity of the Highland Township Ordinance, and that a similar local ordinance enacted by Blaine Township was determined to be invalid ... However, as part of its permit application review, the Department has an obligation to consider applicable local ordinances related to environmental protection and the Commonwealth's public natural resources. In the event

Seneca Township challenged the Ordinance in February of 2015 in this Court. See Seneca Resources Corp. v. Highland Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania, C.A. No. 15-60Erie.

The parties reached a settlement and this Court entered a Stipulation and Consent Decree. The parties stipulated that the Ordinance was unconstitutional and unenforceable. In August of 2016, this Court adopted the findings of the consent decree, adjudging the Ordinance to be unconstitutional, invalid, and unenforceable. That was not the end of the matter, however.

By referendum vote in November of 2016, Highland Township adopted a Home Rule Charter which, among other things, enshrined the provisions of the Ordinance previously invalidated by this Court. Section 401 of the Home Rule Charter prohibits any corporation from engaging in the depositing of waste water from oil and gas extraction within the Township. Further, Section 404 of the Charter provides that “No permit, license, privilege, charter, or other authorization, issued by any state or federal entity, that would enable any corporation or person to violate the rights or prohibitions of this Charter, shall be lawful within Highland Township.” Other sections of the Charter provide for fines for any violations of its provisions and create standing for entities such as ecosystems and “natural communities.” Section 410 of the Charter of a conflict between a permit application and a local ordinance the department may suspend its review of the application until the conflict has been resolved.

As a result of the conflict between your application and the Highland Township Ordinance, and the potential for legal action against Department employees being brought pursuant to this local ordinance, the Department has decided to suspend its review of your permit application pending a court decision concerning the validity of the Highland Township Ordinance. The Department will take a final action regarding issuance of the permit once a court ruling has been rendered determining the validity of the local ordinance.

declares that Highland Township will only recognize a federal or state law to the extent it does not violate the rights and prohibitions outlined in the Charter.<sup>3</sup>

Seneca Resources initiated this action on November 30, 2016, challenging the Township's Home Rule Charter which directly precludes its ability to create and operate an injection well within the Township. Seneca Resources has moved to invalidate the entire Home Rule Charter, and to both temporarily and permanently enjoin Highland Township and the Board of Supervisors (the "Board") from enforcing the Charter. More specifically, the company alleges that the Home Rule Charter is preempted by the federal Safe Drinking Water Act; the Pennsylvania Oil and Gas Act; and is an impermissible exercise of police power and legislative authority. Seneca Resources also alleges that the Charter offends the Constitution's Supremacy Clause and the First Amendment, as well as violates the company's rights to both substantive and procedural due process. As relief, Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment, inter alia, that the Home Rule Charter as a whole is a) preempted by federal and state law; b) is an impermissible exercise of police power by the Township; c) is a violation of the Supremacy Clause; d) constitutes illegal exclusionary zoning; e) constitutes an impermissible exercise of legislative authority; f) is a violation of Seneca's First Amendment rights; and g) is a violation of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution. ECF No. 1, pages 22-23.

The Township Defendants filed an Answer to the Complaint wherein they admitted the majority of Seneca Resource's claims, including the unconstitutionality and unenforceability of the Charter. Specifically, Defendants acknowledged that they “are constrained to acknowledge that §§109-110, 401, and 404-411 of the HRC are invalid and unenforceable as an impermissible exercise of the Township's legislative authority and/or police powers, and that §501 of the HRC is unconstitutional. The Defendants further respectfully requests that this Honorable court limit any relief afforded to Seneca Resources Corporation to relief that is declaratory in nature and with specific regard to those portions of the Home Rule Charter (identified above) that are properly subject to invalidation on the basis of (where appropriate) preemption by state or federal law; an improper exercise of municipal police or legislative authority; or unconstitutionality, and that it award Seneca no damages, costs, or counsel fees as against Highland Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania and the Highland Township Board of Supervisors, Elk County, Pennsylvania.”

ECF No. 15, page 15.

Given these admissions, Seneca has moved for a judgment on the pleadings pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(c). Seneca moves for judgment on the pleadings at all nine counts of the Complaint claiming the Home Rule Charter in its entirety is invalid, unenforceable, or unconstitutional. However, the motion’s “Wherefore clause” requests that this Court enter judgment only on § § 103-106, 109-110, 401, 404-411, and 501 of the Home Rule Charter. ECF No. 26.

The Township Defendants submitted a short responsive filing to this motion wherein they concurred<sup>4</sup> with Plaintiff that the Charter is unconstitutional, preempted, and unenforceable. ECF No. 31; ECF No. 32. They concurred in Seneca Resources request for a judgment on the pleadings in favor of the corporation on certain specific provisions of the Home Rule Charter.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Defendants concur: “WHEREFORE, the Defendants, Highland Township, Elk County, Pennsylvania and the Highland Township Board of Supervisors, Elk County, Pennsylvania, are constrained to acknowledge that §§109-110, 401, and 404-411 of the HRC are invalid and unenforceable as an impermissible exercise of the Township’s legislative authority and/or police powers; that §501 of the HRC is unconstitutional; and that §§103-106 of the HRC are unconstitutional, invalid, and unenforceable because they are inextricably intertwined with §§109-110, 401, 404-411, and 501 of the HRC. The Defendants further agree that Seneca Resources Corporation is entitled to relief that is declaratory in nature and with specific regard to those portions of the Home Rule Charter (identified above) that are properly subject to invalidation on the basis of (where appropriate) preemption by state or federal law; an improper exercise of municipal police or legislative authority; or unconstitutionality.” ECF No. 31.

III. Standard of Review for Motions for Judgment on the Pleadings

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(c) provides that “after the pleadings are closed—but early enough not to delay trial—a party may move for judgment on the pleadings.” Judgment on the pleadings is appropriate only when the movant “clearly establishes that no material issue of fact remains to be resolved and that he is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.” Rosenau v. Unifund Corp., 539 F.3d 218, 221 (3d Cir. 2008). A motion under Rule 12(c) is reviewed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6). Turbe v. Government of the Virgin Islands, 938 F.2d 427, 427 (3d Cir. 1991). The Court is therefore required to “accept all factual allegations as true, construe the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff, and determine whether, under any reasonable reading of the complaint, the plaintiff may be entitled to relief.” Broadcom Corp. v. Qualcomm Inc., 501 F.3d 297, 306 (3d Cir. 2007).

Here, as noted above, the Township Defendants do not oppose the motion. In some situations, courts have granted such motions without discussion or analysis. See, e.g., Spann v. Midland Credit Management and Midland Funding, LLC, 2016 WL 5390671 at *4 (E.D. Pa. Sep. 27, 2016). However, the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit has instructed that a court is nevertheless required to address a defendant's motion for judgment on the pleadings on the merits even if it is unopposed by a plaintiff. Stackhouse v. Mazurkiewicz, 951 F.2d 29, 30 (3d Cir. 1991); Anchorage Assocs. v. V.I. Bd. of Tax Review, 922 F.2d 168, 174 (3d Cir. 1990). This Court could not locate precedent for situations such as this case where a plaintiff has filed the motion and defendants do not oppose, and indeed, actively concur in the plaintiff's motion. Therefore, out an abundance of caution, the Court will review the merits of the motion.

<sup>5</sup> The Township Defendants also argue that the Township Board of Supervisors is not a proper defendant to this action as the Board of Supervisors is not a legally recognized entity separate and apart from the Township itself and that any judgment against such an entity would be improper. ECF No. 32. Seneca Resources has not responded to this argument.

IV. Analysis of Plaintiff's Claims

A. Count I – Preemption by the Safe Drinking Water Act

At Count I, Seneca Resources alleges that the Home Rule Charter is preempted by the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300f et seq. (SDWA). More specifically, the corporation contends that § 401 of the Township's Charter presents a clear obstacle to the congressional purpose and procedures embodied in the Act. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 48-54.

“Preemption is a corollary of the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution, and in general, provides that any municipal or state law that is inconsistent with federal law is without effect.” King Cty. v. City of Sammamish, 2017 WL 3424972, at *2 (W.D. Wash. Aug. 8, 2017). Seneca Resources alleges that § 401 of the Township's Charter is preempted by federal law. Further, the Township's Answer to the Complaint, and its response to the motion for judgment on the pleadings admit that § 401 of the Charter is preempted by the Constitution as well as federal and state laws. The Third Circuit recently provided important and relevant background on the preemption doctrine:

The doctrine of preemption is a necessary but precarious component of our system of federalism under which the states and the federal government possess concurrent sovereignty, subject to the limitation that federal law is “the supreme Law of the Land ... any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding.” Consistent with this principle, Congress has the power to enact legislation that preempts state law. At the same time, with due respect to our constitutional scheme built upon a “compound republic,” with power allocated between “two distinct governments,” there is a strong presumption against preemption in areas of the law that States have traditionally occupied. For that reason, all preemption cases “start with the assumption that the historic police powers of the States were not to be superseded by the Federal Act unless that was the clear and manifest purpose of Congress.” Congressional intent is the “ultimate touchstone” of a preemption analysis. Thus, when confronted with the question of whether state claims are preempted, as we are here, we look to the language, structure, and purpose of the relevant statutory and regulatory scheme to develop a “reasoned understanding of the way in which Congress intended the statute and its surrounding regulatory scheme to affect business, consumers, and the law.”

Sikkelee v. Precision Airmotive Corp., 822 F.3d 680, 687 (3d Cir. 2016) (internal citations omitted). Seneca Resources argues that the Township's Charter is subject to conflict preemption. There are two types of conflict preemption: (1) where “compliance with both federal and state duties is simply impossible,” and (2) where “compliance with both laws is possible, yet state law poses an obstacle to the full achievement of federal purposes.” MD Mall Assocs. v. CSX Transp., Inc., 715 F.3d 479, 495 (3d Cir. 2013). Seneca Resources relies on “obstacle” conflict preemption. Thus, the Court will examine § 401 in order to determine whether it poses an obstacle to achieving Congress's goals under various federal statutes and, more broadly, the Constitution itself.

The federal SDWA, 42 U.S.C. § 300f et seq. applies to “each public water system in each State,” 42 U.S.C. § 300g, sets out a comprehensive regime to protect America's drinking water, and authorizes the federal EPA to set standards for drinking water contaminants therein. 42 U.S.C. § 300g-1; see also Wyoming et al. v. Zinke, ___ F.3d ___, 2017 WL 4173619 (10th Cir. 2017). In particular, it protects “public water systems” and underground water sources. See 42 U.S.C. §§ 300g et seq., 300h et seq. (respectively).

Among other things, the SDWA establishes a national program (“the UIC program”) for regulating injection wells in order to protect underground sources of drinking water. See 42 U.S.C. §§ 300g, 300h. In order to protect underground sources of drinking water, the SDWA authorizes EPA to issue regulations establishing standards for UIC programs, and allows each state to seek approval to administer its own UIC program based on those federal requirements.

See 42 U.S.C. §§ 300h(a), 300h-1(b); EQT Production Co. v. Wender, ___ F.3d ___, 2017 WL 3722448 (4th Cir. Aug. 30, 2017). Part C of the SDWA requires that the Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency establish underground injection control regulations in order to protect underground sources of drinking water from contamination by underground injection of wastes. 42 U.S.C. § 300h-1(a), (d). As has been explained,

The goals of the SDWA are achieved through cooperative federalism. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) sets national minimum standards, but the States implement those standards. See id. §§ 300f(7)-(8), 300g-2 (providing for State regulation satisfying a national standard). Section 300h-300h-8 of the SDWA (also called Part C) describes the underground injection program. As set forth in the SDWA, the EPA cannot directly regulate underground injections; it can only recommend that a State do so. Id. § 300h-1(a). States may regulate underground injections of any substance, including garbage and waste. See H.R. 93-1185 (1974). In 2005, Congress excluded non-diesel fracking from the definition of “underground injection.” Energy Policy Act of 2005, 109 P.L. 58, 119 Stat. 594 (2005) (codified at 42 U.S.C. § 300h(d)(1)(B)(ii)). This amendment to the SDWA came after a ruling of the Eleventh Circuit, which held that the EPA had authority to regulate fracking under the statute as then written. See Legal Envtl. Assistance Found. (LEAF), Inc. v. EPA, 118 F.3d 1467, 1470 (11th Cir. 1997).

Wyoming, 2017 WL 4173619, at *3. Section 401 of the Charter states that “it shall be unlawful within Highland Township for any corporation or government to engage in the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.” This provision creates a direct obstacle to Congress’ intentions to create a cooperative system, based on principles of federalism, to regulate and protect drinking water and any underground processes which might endanger that resource. The Court notes, for example, that § 300h(a)(1) of the SDWA directs the Administrator of the federal EPA to promulgate regulations which set out minimum requirements for state underground injection control (UIC) programs. See E.O.R. Energy L.L.C., et al. v. Messina, Director of Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, 2017 WL 4181346 (C.D. Il. Sept. 19, 2017). By prohibiting the deposit of waste from oil and gas extraction in the Township, § 401 of the Township's Charter creates a clear obstacle to the Congressional objectives and procedures as embodied in the SDWA. As such, that provision is preempted by federal law. The Charter interferes, impedes, and opposes Congress' goals. Consequently, the Commission lacks the power to legislate in conflict with the state in this area. Section 401 of the Charter stands as an obstacle to federal law, and hence is void. The motion for judgment on the pleadings will be granted in this regard.

B. Count II – Preemption by Pennsylvania Oil and Gas Act

Plaintiff alleges that the Home Rule Charter's prohibition on brine disposal (referencing § 401) within the Township is expressly preempted by § 3302 of the Pennsylvania Oil and Gas Act, otherwise known as Act 13. Plaintiff claims that this provision of the Home Rule Charter is preempted by Act 13 which exclusively and comprehensively regulates the development of oil and gas within this Commonwealth. Plaintiff alleges that by the statute's terms, 55 Pa.C.S. § 3302 expressly "supersedes" all local ordinances "purporting to regulate oil and gas operations" related to development unless those ordinances are adopted pursuant to the Flood Plain Management Act or the Municipalities Planning Code. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 56-66.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>6</sup> In its brief in support of its motion for judgment on the pleadings, Plaintiff expands its argument on preemption by Act 13 to include a challenge to § 404 of the Home Rule Charter. ECF No. 27, page 16. Because the present dispositive motion is a motion for judgment on the pleadings, and neither the text of § 404 nor any reference to § 404 appears in the Complaint, the Court will limit its review to the complaint and the answer only.

Act 13 has been characterized by the courts of this Commonwealth as “the first significant overhaul of state statutes governing oil and gas drilling in thirty years, constitut[ing] a ‘land use revolution respecting oil and gas operations’ within this Commonwealth.” Robinson Township v. Commonwealth, (“Robinson IV”), 147 A.3d 536, 559 (Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 2016) quoting Robinson Township v. Commonwealth, (“Robinson II”), 83 A.3d 901, 974 (Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 2013). Act 13 has been the subject of intense litigation, so much so that many of its provisions have been ruled unconstitutional. Id.

Plaintiff alleges that the Home Rule Charter is expressly preempted by a provision of Act 13 that remains in effect. The relevant portion of § 3302 provides: “Except with respect to local ordinances adopted pursuant to the Municipalities Planning Code [“MPC”] and the act of October 4, 1978 known as the Flood Plain Management Act, all local ordinances purporting to regulate oil and gas operations regulated by Chapter 32 (relating to development) are hereby superseded.” 58 Pa.C.S. § 3302.

The preemption doctrine establishes priority between potentially conflicting laws enacted by various levels of government. Huntley & Huntley v. Borough Counsel of Borough of Oakmont, 964 A.2d 855, 862-63 (Pa. 2009). Local legislation cannot permit that which a state statute forbids or prohibit that which state enactments allow. Id. citing Liverpool Township v. Stephens, 900 A.2d 1030 (Pa. Cmmw. Ct. 2006). See also Range Resources-Appalachia, LLC v. Salem Township, 600 Pa. 231 n.7 (2009) (finding a direct conflict between state law and a local ordinance where the ordinance forbade what the state law allowed).

Here, the plain terms of Act 13 indicate that a local ordinance purporting to regulate oil and gas operations must be adopted pursuant to the MPC and the Flood Plain Management Act. Seneca alleges that the adoption of the Home Rule Charter was not in compliance with either the MPC or the Flood Plain Management Act [ECF No. 1, ¶ 63] and Defendants do not deny this allegation.

Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to judgment on the pleadings on this claim as the Home Rule Charter violates § 3302 of the Oil and Gas Act and is therefore preempted.

C. Counts III and VI – Impermissible Use of Police and Legislative Powers

“A municipality is a creature of the state and thus necessarily subordinate to its creator, and can exercise only such power as may be granted to it by the legislature.” Twp. of Lyndhurst, New Jersey v. Priceline.com, 657 F.3d 148, 156 (3d Cir. 2011). Consequently, municipal corporations “possess only such powers of government as are expressly granted to [them] and as are necessary to carry the same into effect.” Appeal of Gagliardi, 163 A.2d 418, 419 (Pa. 1960). The Township’s “ability to exercise municipal functions is limited only by its home rule charter, the Pennsylvania Constitution, and the General Assembly.” City of Philadelphia v. Schweiker, 579 Pa. 591, 605 (2004).

When analyzing a home rule township’s “exercise of power ... [courts] begin with the view that it is valid absent a limitation found in the Constitution, the acts of the General Assembly, or the charter itself, and [courts] resolve ambiguities in favor of the municipality.” Nutter v. Dougherty, 595 Pa. 340, 357 (2007) (citations omitted). See also 53 Pa. Cons. Stat. Ann. § 2961 (“All grants of municipal power to municipalities governed by a home rule charter under this subchapter ... shall be liberally construed in favor of the municipality.”).

Plaintiff alleges that portions of Highland Township’s Charter were enacted beyond the authority granted to a township by the Pennsylvania Home Rule Charter and Optional Plans

Law. At Count III, Seneca alleges that Highland Township acted beyond the scope of its police power because:

The Home Rule Charter is unduly oppressive, arbitrarily interferes with private business, and imposes unnecessary restrictions upon lawful business activities based on the mere allegation and speculation that all disposal and storage of brine adversely affects the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the Township.

ECF No. 1, ¶ 73. Plaintiff does not identify any specific provision of the Home Rule Charter at this claim. This Court construes this claim as attacking the Home Rule Charter in its entirety.

As to Count VI, Seneca alleges that the Home Rule Charter is an illegal exercise of legislative authority in that:

The Home Rule Charter purports to regulate the location of uses within the Township and is, therefore, a zoning ordinance.

The Home Rule Charter's provisions attempting to create municipal zoning and land use regulation violates the limitations of the MPC.

Id. at ¶¶ 93, 98. Although not specified, presumably this is a challenge to § 401 of the Home Rule Charter.

Plaintiff's brief discusses both of these claims together and the Home Rule Charter as a whole, but then shifts its focus to §§ 406-408. In this regard, Plaintiff's moving papers are both too broad (in that there are not sufficient allegations and arguments for this Court to determine that the entire Home Rule Charter was enacted beyond the authority granted to a township by the Pennsylvania Home Rule Charter and Optional Plans Law) and too narrow (in that no challenges to §§ 406-408 are alleged or referenced in the Complaint).

As to Count VI, § 401 of the Home Rule Charter is an illegal exercise of legislative authority as the Home Rule Charter and Optional Plan Act does not authorize a home rule community to engage in zoning decisions. See 53 Pa.Con.Stat. § 2962(a)(10); Delaware County

v. Middletown Township, 511 A.2d 811 (Pennsylvania Supreme Court 1986). By prohibiting a legitimate use within its borders, Highland Township has exceeded its authority.

Accordingly, the motion for judgment on the pleadings is denied as to Count III and granted as to Count VI.

D. Count IV – The Supremacy Clause Challenge

Plaintiff claims that § 501 of the Home Rule Charter violates the Supremacy Clause because it purports to divest corporations of virtually all of their constitutional rights. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 79-84.

In Armstrong v. Exceptional Child Ctr., Inc., the Supreme Court held that “[T]he Supremacy Clause . . . does not create a cause of action,” is not the “source of any federal rights,” but instead “instructs courts what to do when state and federal law clash.” ___ U.S. ___, ___, 135 S.Ct. 1378, 1383 (2015). The Armstrong Court further explained, “If the Supremacy Clause includes a private right of action, then the Constitution requires Congress to permit the enforcement of its laws by private actors, significantly curtailing its ability to guide the implementation of federal law . . . a limitation unheard-of with regard to state legislatures.” Id. at ___, 1384. Therefore, since Plaintiff is a private actor, Plaintiff cannot seek to enforce or otherwise bring a cause of action under the Supremacy Clause. See Davis v. Shah, 821 F.3d 231, 246 (2d Cir. 2016) (holding that Armstrong forecloses plaintiff’s claim of a private right of action under the Supremacy Clause). See also Alliance v. Alt. Holistic Healing, LLC, 2016 WL 223815, at *2 (D. Colo. 2016) (agreeing that there is no private right of action under the Supremacy Clause and explaining that parties cannot use it as a basis for equitable relief); Tohono O’odham Nation v. Ducey, 130 F.Supp.3d 1301, 1315 (D.Ariz. 2015) (explaining that the Tohono O’odham Indian Nation cannot seek relief under the Supremacy Clause since no private cause of action exists); Mercer County Children’s Medical Daycare, LLC v. O’Dowd, 2015 WL 5335590, at * 2 (D.N.J. 2015) (“The Supreme Court’s analysis of the Supremacy Clause [in Armstrong] appears standalone, not tied to or in any way affected by its analysis of § 30(A).”).

Accordingly, Plaintiff’s motion for judgment on the pleadings will be denied and Count IV will be dismissed.

E. Count V – Exclusionary Zoning

Plaintiff alleges that the Home Rule Charter’s prohibition on the storage and disposal of brine anywhere in the Township (again, referencing § 401) violates Pennsylvania law which requires that a municipality authorize all legitimate uses somewhere within its boundaries. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 86-90.

It is true that Pennsylvania law requires that a municipality authorize all legitimate uses somewhere within its boundaries. Beaver Gasoline Co. v. Osborne Borough, 285 A.2d 501, 503-04 (Pa. 1971) (“The constitutionality of a zoning ordinance which totally prohibits legitimate uses or fails to provide for such uses anywhere within the municipality should be regarded with particular circumspection.”). Although an ordinance is presumed valid, the presumption disappears when an ordinance is de jure exclusionary. Id. at 504-05; Tri-County Landfill v. Pine Twp. Zoning Hearing Bd., 83 A.3d 488, 518 (Pa. Cmmw. Ct. 2014). A de jure exclusion exists where an ordinance, on its face, completely or effectively bans a legitimate use. Tri-County Landfill, 83 A.3d at 518. Upon a showing that an ordinance is de jure exclusionary, the burden shifts to the municipality to show that the “exclusionary regulation bears a substantial relationship to the public health, safety, morality, or welfare.” Twp. of Exeter v. Zoning Hearing Bd., 962 A.2d 653, 661 (Pa. 2009).

Here, § 401 of the Home Rule Charter proclaims that “it shall be unlawful within Highland Township for any corporation or government to engage in the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction,” despite the fact that the development of oil and gas (which necessarily includes the management of waste materials generated at a well site) is a legitimate business activity and land use within Pennsylvania. See generally Oil & Gas Act, 58 Pa.C.S. § 3301. Because § 401, on its face, completely bans a legitimate use, it is de jure exclusionary. De jure exclusionary ordinances can only be justified by a “substantial relationship” to public health, safety, or welfare. Township of Exeter v. Zoning Hearing Bd., 599 Pa. 568, 579-80 (Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 2009) (“a zoning ordinance which totally excludes a particular business from an entire municipality must bear a more substantial relationship to the public health, safety, morals and general welfare than an ordinance which merely confines that business to a certain area in the municipality.”). Because no such relationship has been shown here by Defendants, the motion succeeds. It is not the Court’s burden to assume or substantiate a connection to public health, safety, morals, and general welfare.

Judgment will be granted in favor of Plaintiff on Count V.

F. Count VII -- The Petition Clause Challenge

At Count VII, Plaintiff alleges that § 501 of the Home Rule Charter suppresses Seneca Resources’ right to make a complaint to, or seek the assistance of, the government for the redress of grievances in violation of Seneca Resources’ First Amendment right to do so. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 101-105. The Home Rule Charter purports to divest corporations, such as Seneca, of their constitutional right to petition the government for redress of grievances in that it strips corporations of: 1) their status as “persons” under the law; 2) their right to assert state or federal preemptive laws in an attempt to overturn the Home Rule Charter; and 3) their power to assert that the Township lacks the authority to adopt the Home Rule Charter. Id. at ¶ 103.

The First Amendment protects “the right of the people ... to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” Borough of Duryea, Pa. v. Guarnieri, 564 U.S. 379, 382 (2011). The threshold question in a right-to-petition case ... is ... whether the plaintiff's conduct deserves constitutional protection.” EJS Properties, LLC v. City of Toledo, 698 F.3d 845, 863 (6th Cir. 2012) quoting Holzemer v. City of Memphis, 621 F.3d 512, 520 (6th Cir. 2010). The petition clause protects a citizen's right of access to governmental mechanisms for the redress of grievances, including the right of access to the courts for that purpose. See Bieregu v. Reno, 59 F.3d 1445, 1453 (3d Cir. 1995); Citizens United v. Federal Election Comm’n, 558 U.S. 310, 342 (2010) (“... First Amendment protection extends to corporations.”).

The Home Rule Charter’s § 501 provides that:

Corporations that violate this Charter or the laws of the Township, or that seek to violate this Charter or those laws, shall not be deemed to be “persons” ... nor shall they possess any other legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, or duties that would infringe the rights or prohibitions enumerated by this Charter or those laws, including the power to assert that Highland Township, or the people of Highland Township, lack the authority to adopt this Charter or those laws, or the power to assert that Highland Township, its officials, or any resident of Highland Township are liable for damages to the corporation as a result of provisions of this Charter or Township laws.

The Home Rule Charter attempts to eliminate the ability of corporations to access the courts, which it cannot constitutionally do. Therefore, as a matter of law, § 501 of the Home Rule Charter violates the Petition Clause of the First Amendment. Plaintiff’s motion for judgment on the pleadings will be granted in this regard.

G. Count VIII -- The Substantive Due Process Challenge

At Count VIII, Seneca alleges that by enacting the Home Rule Charter, Highland Township “intended to deny corporations, such as Seneca, their legal and long-standing constitutional rights, including, but not limited to, their rights under the First, the Fifth, and the Fourteenth Amendments...” and that “the Township’s conduct in abrogating Seneca’s interest in environmental and UIC permits at Well No. 38268 is deliberate, arbitrary, irrational, exceeds the limits of governmental authority, amounts to an abuse of official power, and shocks the conscience.” ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 108-109. In its Complaint, Plaintiff fails to identify any specific provision of the Home Rule Charter in its substantive due process challenge, but only refers to the Home Rule Charter generally; yet, in its brief in support, Plaintiff identifies § § 401, 404, and 501 as the offending sections. Nonetheless, because the Home Rule Charter was attacked generally as violative of substantive due process in the Complaint, it is appropriate to focus on any of its provisions in the Court’s analysis, including the specific sections cited in Plaintiff’s motion and brief in support.

The Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment provides that no person shall be “deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law.” U.S. CONST. AMEND. 14 § 1. Although the face of the provision speaks only to the adequacy of procedures, the Supreme Court has held that the Due Process Clause contains a substantive, as well as a procedural, component. Nicholas v. Pennsylvania State University, 227 F.3d 133, 138-39 (3d Cir. 2000) citing Planned Parenthood of S.E. Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U.S. 833, 846-47 (1992).

Substantive due process review is no straightforward matter. As the Third Circuit explained in Nicholas, substantive due process “is an area of law ‘famous for controversy, and not known for its simplicity.’” Id. at 139, quoting DeBlasio v. Zoning Bd. Of Adjustment, 53 F.3d 592, 598 (3d Cir. 1995). Although courts have attempted to define a “test,” a bright line review has not been possible because of the very different nature of the underlying facts and rights involved in each case. “Each new claim to [substantive due process] protection must be considered against a background of constitutional purposes, as they have been rationally perceived and historically developed.” Id. at 140, quoting Regents of Univ. of Michigan v. Ewing, 474 U.S. 214, 229 *1985) (Powell, J., concurring).

The Nicholas Court identified two separate threads woven into the “fabric of substantive due process” and then attempted to “untwist this tangled skein.” Id. at 139. The first thread of substantive due process arises when a plaintiff challenges the validity of a legislative act, while the second thread arises out of non-legislative action. Id. The legislative/non-legislative “distinction is significant because it determines the appropriate standard of review for substantive due process challenges.” RHJ Medical Center, Inc. v. City of DuBois, 754 F.Supp.2d 723, 767 (W.D. Pa. 2010). Each separate thread requires a separate analysis, although many courts and parties conflate the two and their corresponding levels of review. Careful attention must be paid.

Here, the challenged Home Rule Charter is a legislative act. Id. See also County Concrete Corp., 442 F.3d at 169. So then, the Charter is properly analyzed under the first thread of substantive due process. In this first thread, a plaintiff does not need to establish a “‘protected property interest to which the Fourteenth Amendment's due process protection applies’ as this standard only applies in a ‘non-legislative substantive due process claim.’” RHJ Medical Center, 754 F.Supp.2d at 768-69, citing Nicholas, 227 F.3d at 139–40 and County Concrete Corp., 442 F.3d at 169. (“For Plaintiff’s facial substantive due process challenge to the Ordinance to be successful, [it] must ‘allege facts that would support a finding of arbitrary or irrational legislative action ...’”).

When reviewing legislative acts on their face, the courts have looked for arbitrary or irrational legislation that impermissibly goes beyond serving a legitimate state interest. County Concrete Corp., 442 F.3 at 169-70. Even under this lesser standard, the Home Rule Charter fails to survive a substantive due process review. The language of the Charter itself runs afoul of constitutional protections afforded corporations and attempts to immunize Highland Township from clashes with current federal and state law:

§ 401. Depositing of Waste from Oil and Gas Extraction. It shall be unlawful within Highland Township for any corporation or government to engage in the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.

§ 404. State and Federal Authority. No permit, license, privilege, charter, or other authorization, issued by any state or federal governmental entity, that would enable any corporation or person to violate the rights or prohibitions of this Charter, shall be lawful within Highland Township.

§ 501. Corporate Privileges. Corporations that violate this Charter or the laws of the Township, or that seek to violate this Charter or those laws, shall not be deemed to be “persons” to the extent that such treatment would infringe the rights or prohibitions enumerated by this Charter or those laws, nor shall they possess any other legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, or duties that would infringe the rights or prohibitions enumerated by this Charter or those laws, including the power to assert that Highland Township, or the people of Highland Township, lack the authority to adopt this Charter or those laws, or the power to assert that Highland Township, its officials, or any resident of Highland Township are liable for damages to the corporation as a result of provisions of this Charter or Township laws.

Because the actual language of the Home Rule Charter highlights irrational and arbitrary behavior de facto, Seneca’s motion for judgment on the pleadings on this claim is granted as violative of Plaintiff’s substantive due process rights.

H. Count IX - The Procedural Due Process Challenge

At Count IX, Plaintiff alleges that the Home Rule Charter’s prohibition of underground injection within the Township “significantly and materially devalues Seneca’s legal rights and interest related to and/or held within the Township, including Seneca’s UIC permit” without any due process in violation of the procedural due process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. ECF No. 1, ¶¶ 113-118.

In order to trigger the protections of the procedural aspects of the Due Process Clause, a plaintiff must demonstrate a property or liberty interest. Cleveland Bd. Of Educ. v. Loudermill, 470 U.S. 532, 541 (1985). See also Mathews v. Eldridge, 425 U.S. 319 (1976); Mudric v. Attorney Gen. of U.S., 469 F.3d 94, 98 (3d Cir. 2006) (“It is axiomatic that a cognizable liberty or property interest must exist in the first instance for a procedural due process claim to lie.”).<sup>7</sup>

The Fourteenth Amendment’s “procedural protection of property is a safeguard of the security of interests that a person has already acquired in specific benefits.” Bd. of Regents v. Roth, 408 U.S. 564, 576 (1972). For purposes of procedural due process, property interests are “... not created by the Constitution.” Id. at 577. Instead, these property interests “are created and their dimensions are defined by existing rules or understandings that stem from an independent

<sup>7</sup> Once a protected interest has been identified, a court must examine the process that accompanies the deprivation of that protected interest and decide whether the procedural due process safeguards built into the process, if any, are constitutionally adequate. Zinerman v. Burch, 494 U.S. 113, 126 (1990).

source such as state law-rules or understandings that secure certain benefits and that support claims of entitlement to those benefits.” Id. “To have a property interest in a benefit, a person clearly must have more than an abstract need or desire for it. [She] must have more than a unilateral expectation of it. [She] must, instead, have a legitimate claim of entitlement to it.” Id.

Seneca argues that it has a property interest in its Underground Injection Control (“UIC”) permit issued by the EPA. As a property interest is an element of its procedural due process claim, it is Seneca’s burden to produce evidence of that requisite property interest. EJS Properties, 698 F.3d at 855. Seneca has not produced the UIC permit in support of its complaint or its motion for judgment on the pleadings.<sup>8</sup>

Accordingly, the motion for judgment on the pleadings will be denied as to this claim.

I. Severability of Other Provisions Related to Invalid Sections

Plaintiff argues that many other provisions of the Home Rule Charter are inextricably intertwined with § § 401, 404, and 501 so that they should be severed from the Home Rule Charter. Defendants agree that these provisions should be severed.

<sup>8</sup> In a similar case, this Court reviewed a UIC permit and concluded that permit, standing alone, did not demonstrate a property interest sufficient to trigger the protections of procedural due process. Pennsylvania Gen. Energy Co., LLC v. Grant Twp., 2017 WL 1215444, at *18 (W.D. Pa. Mar. 31, 2017) (“The UIC permit is issued by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and serves as an “Authorization to Operate Class II-D Injection Wells” in compliance with the provisions of the Safe Drinking Water Act and its corresponding regulations. ECF No. 170-2. The federal regulations indicate that neither the permit itself or the issuance of the permit “convey any property rights of any sort, or any exclusive privilege.” 40 C.F.R. § 144.51(g); 40 C.F.R. § 144.35(b). PGE points to nothing in the permit itself or the law regulating such permits that automatically creates a legitimate claim of entitlement sufficient to demonstrate a property interest. The face of the permit itself spells out that it “does not convey property rights or mineral rights of any sort or any exclusive privilege.” ECF No. 170-2. Because PGE has not satisfied its burden to prove the required property interest, the motion for summary judgment will be denied.”).

Sections 103-106, 109 and 110 relate to the prevention of oil and gas activities and intend to create “rights” and “standing” in residents of the Township, ecosystems, and the Township. These sections are incapable of execution by themselves without § § 401, 404, and 501.

Sections 405-408 provide for the enforcement the Home Rule Charter: § 405 makes it an offense to violate the Home Rule Charter, while § § 406-408 create the mechanism by which the Home Rule Charter should be enforced. These sections are inextricably intertwined with § 401, 404, and 501.

Sections 409, 410, and 411 are also inextricably intertwined with the offending sections. These sections provide for: the enforcement and intervention to enforce or defend the Home Rule Charter (§ 409); the elevation of the Home Rule Charter over existing state and federal laws (§ 410); and instructions to courts to liberally interpret the provisions of Article One of the Home Rule Charter (§ 411).

Because all of these provisions cannot stand on their own, these will be invalidated. See 1 Pa. C.S. § 1925; Robinson Township v. Commonwealth, 96 A.3d 1104, 1119-20 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2014) overruled on other grounds by Robinson IV, 147 A.3d 536.

PROPOSED
HOME RULE CHARTER OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HIGHLAND,
ELK COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

WE THE PEOPLE OF HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP, IN ORDER TO SECURE AND PROTECT OUR CIVIL RIGHTS AND THE RIGHTS OF OUR COMMUNITIES, AND TO SECURE THE BLESSINGS OF LIBERTY TO OURSELVES AND OUR POSTERITY, DO ORDAIN AND ESTABLISH THIS HOME RULE CHARTER FOR THE TOWNSHIP OF HIGHLAND:

ARTICLE I – BILL OF RIGHTS

Section 101. Governmental Legitimacy. All legitimate governments in the United States owe their existence to the people of the community that those governments serve, and governments exist to secure and protect the rights of the people and those communities. Any system of government that becomes destructive of those ends is not legitimate, lawful, or constitutional, and the people have the right to change, alter, or abolish that system of government.

Section 102. Right of Local Community Self-Government. The people of Highland Township possess both a collective and individual right of self-government in their local community, a right to a system of government that embodies that right, and the right to a system of government that protects and secures their human, political, civil, and environmental rights.

Section 103. Right to Exercise the Right of Self-Government. The people of Highland Township possess the right to exercise their right of local community self-government in any manner as to them seems effective. This includes the right to use their municipal corporation, home rule charter, initiative lawmaking, and other institutions or mechanisms to make and enforce law. The making and enforcement of law by the people through such institutions and mechanisms shall not nullify, infringe, or otherwise affect the people's right of local community self-government. This right shall include the right of the people of Highland Township, their government, and their elected officials to be free from civil and criminal liability for making and enforcing laws pursuant to their right of local community self-government.

Section 104. Right to Clean Air, Water, and Soil. All residents of Highland Township, along with natural communities and ecosystems within the Township, possess the right to clean air, water, and soil; and that right shall include the right to be free from activities that may pose potential risks to clean air, water, and soil within the Township, including the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.

Section 105. Rights of Ecosystems and Natural Communities. Ecosystems and natural communities within Highland Township possess the right to exist, flourish, and naturally evolve; and that right shall include the right to be free from activities that may pose potential risks to that right, including the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.

Section 106. Right to a Sustainable Energy Future. All residents of Highland Township possess the right to a sustainable energy future, which includes, but is not limited to, the development, production, and use of energy from renewable and sustainable fuel sources, the right to establish local sustainable energy policies to further secure that right, and the right to be free from energy extraction, production, and use that may adversely impact the rights of human communities, natural communities, or ecosystems. The right to a sustainable energy future shall include the right to be free from activities related to fossil fuel extraction and production, including the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.

Section 107. Right to Fair and Equal Taxation. All residents of Highland Township possess the right to be fairly and equally taxed. That right shall include, but not be limited to, the right to be assessed taxes that do not exceed the rates previously established for the Township by the Local Tax Enabling Act and the Second Class Township Code; and Township Supervisors shall not possess any additional authority or power under this Charter to levy taxes at rates that exceed those limitations.

Section 108. Right to Public Control of Municipal Water Supplies. The residents of Highland Township possess the right to publicly control all municipal water supplies and the infrastructure for the delivery of those water supplies; and that right shall include the right not to have those supplies or infrastructure sold, leased, or otherwise transferred to any non-governmental entity.

Section 109. Right to Enforce. All residents of Highland Township possess the right to enforce the rights and prohibitions secured by this Charter; and that right shall include the right of natural persons domiciled in Highland Township to intervene on behalf of themselves and on behalf of ecosystems and natural communities to assert and defend the validity of this Charter in judicial or other governmental proceedings.

Section 110. Rights as Self-Executing. All rights secured by this Charter are inherent, fundamental, and unalienable, and shall be self-executing and enforceable against both private and public actors. Further implementing legislation shall not be required for Highland Township, natural persons domiciled in Highland Township acting either individually or collectively, or the ecosystems and natural communities protected by this Charter, to enforce all of the provisions of this Charter. The rights secured by Article One of this Charter shall only be enforceable against actions specifically prohibited by this Charter.

ARTICLE II – GENERAL POWERS OF THE MUNICIPALITY

Section 201. Status and Title. The name of the municipality created by this Home Rule Charter shall be “Highland Township” and it shall operate as a Home Rule municipality, and possess the powers and authority of a Home Rule municipality. The creation of the new municipality, through the popular adoption of this Charter, terminates the existence of the prior municipality and supersedes it in all respects.

Section 202. Boundaries. The boundaries of the Township shall be the actual boundaries of the Township at the time this Charter takes effect and as they may be lawfully changed thereafter.

Section 203. Rules of Operation. Unless expanded, altered, or otherwise changed by the provisions of this Charter, the rules of operation for the Highland Township Home Rule municipal corporation shall be the ones provided to second class Townships pursuant to the Second Class Township Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 204. Legal Claims of the Township. Upon enactment of this Charter, the Township shall continue to own, possess, and control all legal claims, power, and property of every kind and nature, owned, possessed, or controlled by it prior to when this Charter takes effect.

Section 205. Pending and Past Actions and Proceedings. No enforcement action or proceeding, civil or criminal, which was brought by the Township or any office, department, agency, or officer thereof, pending at the time this Charter takes effect, shall be affected by the adoption of this Charter or by anything herein contained. No prior rulings or decisions by any court, or consent decrees or other settlement agreements entered into between any party and the prior municipality – or the elected or appointed officials of the prior municipality – shall bind the new government established by this Charter, nor shall those rulings, decisions, consent decrees, or other settlement agreements limit the ability, authority, or power of the residents of Highland Township to enforce the rights and prohibitions secured by their Charter.

Section 206. Repeals and Continuation of Ordinances. All Ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations, or portions thereof in force when this Charter takes effect, which have been directly incorporated into this Charter, shall be deemed to have been repealed or amended to the extent that they duplicate provisions of this Charter. Other Ordinances, resolutions, rules, and regulations, or portions thereof in force when this Charter takes effect, shall temporarily be continued in force and effect until the Board of Supervisors has reviewed them, and determined to re-adopt them as Ordinances of the Home Rule municipality, or determined that they should be repealed or amended.

Section 207. Adoption of Budget. The Board of Supervisors shall be required to adopt a budget in accordance with the provisions of Section 3202 of the Pennsylvania Second Class Township Code (or the relevant sections of any future code). In the event the Board of Supervisors are unable to adopt an annual budget, the annual budget from the previous fiscal year shall serve as the operating budget until the Board of Supervisors fulfills its duty to adopt a new annual budget.

ARTICLE III – GOVERNING BODY

Section 301. Board of Supervisors. The governing body of the Highland Township Home Rule municipality shall be a Board of Supervisors, acting under the authority of, and with the consent of, the people of Highland Township. The Board of Supervisors shall consist of three Supervisors, elected from the Township at-large.

Section 302. Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs on the Board of Supervisors, the remaining Supervisors shall appoint a successor who is an elector of Highland Township, who has resided within the Township continuously for at least one year prior to the appointment, and who appeared on the ballot for the position of Supervisor in Highland Township at the most recent election for Supervisor within the Township. The appointment of any Supervisor shall only be effective until the next available primary, municipal, or general election, at which point a new Supervisor shall be elected to fill the original vacancy for the remainder of the term. If the Board of Supervisors fails to make an appointment within thirty days after a vacancy occurs, the vacancy shall be filled at the next available primary, municipal, or general election, in accordance with regular election procedures, provided that there has been time for the completion of such election procedures.

Section 303. Term of Office. The term of office for newly-elected Supervisors shall be four years.

Section 304. Authority of Existing Officers. The Supervisors in office at the time this Charter takes effect shall remain in office for the full terms for which they were originally elected, and shall receive the same compensation until their terms expire. However, they shall have the responsibilities, duties, and authority only as set forth in, and pursuant to, this Charter. All other elected officials of the Township in office at the time this Charter takes effect shall remain in office for the full term for which they were elected, and shall receive the same compensation that they received prior to the adoption of this Charter.

ARTICLE IV – PROHIBITIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Section 401. Depositing of Waste from Oil and Gas Extraction. It shall be unlawful within Highland Township for any corporation or government to engage in the depositing of waste from oil and gas extraction.

Section 402. Limitations on Taxation. It shall be unlawful within Highland Township for taxes to be levied at rates that exceed the rates previously established for the Township by the Local Tax Enabling Act and the Second Class Township Code.

Section 403. Public Control of Municipal Water Supplies. It shall be unlawful within Highland Township for municipal water supplies, and the infrastructure for the delivery of those water supplies, to be sold, leased, or otherwise transferred to any non-governmental entity.

Section 404. State and Federal Authority. No permit, license, privilege, charter, or other authorization, issued by any state or federal governmental entity, that would enable any corporation or person to violate the rights or prohibitions of this Charter, shall be lawful within Highland Township.

Section 405. Offenses. Any corporation or government that violates any provision of this Charter shall be guilty of an offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay the maximum fine allowable under State law. Each day or portion thereof, and each violation of a section of this Charter, shall count as a separate offense.

Section 406. Standing for Township Residents. Highland Township, or any natural person domiciled in Highland Township, may enforce all the provisions of this Charter through an action brought in any court possessing jurisdiction over activities occurring within Highland Township. In such an action, Highland Township, or the natural person, shall be entitled to recover all costs of litigation, including, without limitation, expert and attorney's fees.

Section 407. Enforcement of Natural Community and Ecosystem Rights. Ecosystems and natural communities within Highland Township may enforce all the provisions of this Charter through an action brought by Highland Township, or any natural person domiciled in Highland Township, in the name of the ecosystem or natural community as the real party in interest. Actions may be brought in any court possessing jurisdiction over activities occurring within Highland Township. Damages shall be measured by the cost of restoring the ecosystem or natural community to its state before the injury, and shall be paid to Highland Township to be used exclusively for the full and complete restoration of the ecosystem or natural community.

Section 408. Right to Direct Enforcement. If a court fails to uphold this Charter's limitations on corporate power, or otherwise fails to uphold the rights secured by Article One of this Charter, the rights and prohibitions secured by this Charter shall not be affected by that judicial failure, and any natural person may then enforce the rights and prohibitions of this Charter through nonviolent direct action. If enforcement through nonviolent direct action is commenced, this Charter shall prohibit any private or public actor from bringing criminal charges or filing any civil or other criminal action against anyone participating in nonviolent direct action. If an action is filed in violation of this provision, the applicable court must dismiss the action promptly, without further filings being required of nonviolent direct action participants. "Nonviolent direct action" as used by this provision shall mean any nonviolent activities or actions carried out to directly enforce the rights and prohibitions contained within this Charter, provided that those nonviolent activities or actions do not impede or obstruct the movement of emergency vehicles, such as fire trucks or ambulances.

Section 409. Intervention in Lawsuits. As the Highland Township government might be subject to political forces beyond the control of natural persons domiciled in Highland Township or natural communities and ecosystems located within Highland Township, the Highland Township government's support for, or defense of, this Charter in any lawsuit shall not be deemed to render the Highland Township municipal corporation adequate to represent fully the interests of persons, natural communities, or ecosystems seeking intervention, and so shall not be a ground upon which to deny such intervention by such persons or by ecosystems or natural communities.

Section 410. Enforcement of State Laws. All laws adopted by the legislature of the State of Pennsylvania or by Congress, and rules adopted by any State or federal agency, shall be the law of Highland Township only to the extent that they do not violate the rights or prohibitions of this Charter, or limit the authority of Highland Township or the people of Highland Township to adopt and enforce greater protections for these rights than afforded by the Pennsylvania legislature or by Congress.

Section 411. Interpretation. Any reviewing court shall liberally interpret this Charter's provisions to protect the rights secured in Article One. Nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted to restrict fundamental rights of individuals, their communities, or nature already secured by the Pennsylvania constitution, the United States constitution, or international law; and nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted to weaken protections for individuals, their communities, or nature, as provided by state, federal, international, or constitutional law.

ARTICLE V – CORPORATE POWERS

Section 501. Corporate Privileges. Corporations that violate this Charter or the laws of the Township, or that seek to violate this Charter or those laws, shall not be deemed to be "persons" to the extent that such treatment would infringe the rights or prohibitions enumerated by this Charter or those laws, nor shall they possess any other legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, or duties that would infringe the rights or prohibitions enumerated by this Charter or those laws, including the power to assert state or federal preemptive laws in an attempt to overturn this Charter or those laws, or the power to assert that Highland Township, or the people of Highland Township, lack the authority to adopt this Charter or those laws, or the power to assert that Highland Township, its officials, or any resident of Highland Township are liable for damages to the corporation as a result of provisions of this Charter or Township laws.

ARTICLE VI – EMERGENCY TOWN MEETING

Section 601. Emergency Town Meeting. In the event of a substantial public emergency affecting the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of Highland Township, or an event or activity that would infringe on the rights of the residents of Highland Township, the electors of the Township may call an Emergency Town Meeting whereby the electors of the Township may adopt a proposed Ordinance. If adopted, that Ordinance shall remain valid until the next available election at which the electors of the Township shall have the opportunity to make the Ordinance permanent by amending the Township's Home Rule Charter with the substance of the Ordinance.

Section 602. Initiation and Petition Form. To call an Emergency Town Meeting, a petition must be created by the petition filer. Each petition shall bear the name of the petition filer. The petition filer shall deliver written notice, along with a copy of the proposed Ordinance, to the Township Secretary during the hours that the Township office is officially open, and the Township Secretary shall post a copy of that notice and the proposed Ordinance at the Township Building the same day upon receiving that notice. No signatures may be affixed to the petitions until notice of the petition is posted at the Township Building. Each signature shall be in ink and shall be accompanied by the signer's address, signer's printed name, and the date of signing. Only registered electors who are residents of the Township are eligible to sign the petition. The petition shall contain the full text of the proposed Ordinance if that text can fit on a single page. If the text cannot fit on a single page, then circulators shall have full copies of the proposed Ordinance in their possession for inspection by potential signers, and the petition shall identify the Ordinance by declaring that "The signers below call for an Emergency Town Meeting to be held to consider the adoption of the Ordinance filed with the Secretary of the Township on [date] by [petition filer]." On the back of each page of the petition there shall be an attached affidavit executed by the circulator verifying the authenticity of the signers, and affirming that the signers are registered electors who are residents of the Township to the best of the circulator's knowledge. Only registered electors who are residents within the Township may circulate petitions.

Section 603. Timeline. Petition circulators shall have fifteen calendar days to collect the required signatures, commencing on the date that the Township Secretary posts the petition. The date that the Township Secretary posts the petition shall be included as one of the fifteen days that circulators may collect signatures. Petition circulators must gather valid signatures equal to at least thirty percent of the number of registered electors within the Township. Petitions bearing the requisite number of signatures must then be filed with the Secretary of the Township during the hours that the Township office is officially open, and the Secretary shall issue a written notice of receipt, and then send the signatures to the Emergency Town Meeting Committee for verification. If the fifteen day window for signature gathering expires on a day that the Township office is not officially open, the signatures may be submitted to the Township Secretary on the next day that the Township office is officially open; no signatures shall be gathered on the day(s) that fall between the date that the signature gathering window expires and the next day that the Township office is officially open.

Section 604. Verification and the Emergency Town Meeting Committee. The Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall verify the accuracy and sufficiency of the petition signatures within ten days of the date upon which the petitions are submitted to the Township Secretary, and the Committee shall issue a final determination based on its review. Upon receipt of the petitions from the Secretary, the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall schedule and advertise, as a special meeting, a meeting of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee. The Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall consist of the Township Secretary, the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, the Township Auditor who has served for the longest period of time in the capacity of Auditor within the Township, the petition filer, and the Township Tax Collector. A quorum of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall consist of three of those individuals. The number of required signatures shall be calculated using current records from the County Board of Elections; the validity of signatures shall be verified using current records from the County Board of Elections. Disputes over the validity of any individual signature shall be resolved by a majority vote of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee.

Section 605. Judicial Review. The petition filer shall be notified of the final determination of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee within one day of the final determination. The final determination of whether the petition satisfies the requirements for the calling of an Emergency Town Meeting shall be subject to judicial review. An appeal of the final determination of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall be filed to the Elk County Court of Common Pleas, and such appeal must be filed within ten days of the final determination of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee. Filing of the appeal shall not prejudice the ability of the original petitioner to create, circulate, and qualify a new petition, following the procedures contained within this Article.

Section 606. Emergency Town Meeting Preparation. If the Emergency Town Meeting Committee determines that the petitions meet the requirements imposed by this Article of the Charter, it shall issue a final determination to that effect, and the Committee shall set a date for the Emergency Town Meeting, which must occur no later than fifteen days after the Emergency Town Meeting Committee has made its final determination. Notices shall be sent via U.S. Mail to all registered electors who are residents of the Township, informing those electors of the date of the Emergency Town Meeting. The Notices shall also contain a brief summary of the proposed Ordinance, and also a brief overview of the nature of the Emergency Town Meeting, including informing electors that they will have the opportunity to cast a vote on the proposed Ordinance. The Notices shall be sent out no later than seven days before the date of the Emergency Town Meeting. Two advertisements, containing the summary of the proposed Ordinance and the date of the Emergency Town Meeting, shall also be published on two consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation within the Township before the meeting is held.

Section 607. Running of the Meeting. The Chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall facilitate the Emergency Town Meeting. All Township electors shall be issued a ballot upon arrival at the Emergency Town Meeting. The ballots shall be created and printed by the Emergency Town Meeting Committee. The ballot shall contain the summary of the proposed Ordinance, the question "Shall this Ordinance become law within Highland Township?" and a space for the elector to vote "yes" or "no" on the question. Sufficient copies of the full text of the Ordinance shall be available for inspection at the Emergency Town Meeting. The Chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall call the meeting to order. The petitioner shall have ten minutes to present the proposed Ordinance. Public comment shall follow, with registered Township electors having three minutes each to speak. Following public comment, electors shall individually deliver their ballots to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors; and the Chairman, upon receiving each ballot, shall direct the Township Secretary to verify the name of the elector on records obtained from the Elk County Board of Elections. Once verified, the Chairman shall place the ballot into a container overseen by the Emergency Town Meeting Committee.

Section 608. Ballot Counting. When all the votes have been cast, the Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall, in the open and during the Emergency Town Meeting, immediately sort and count the ballots. Only the Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall be involved in the sorting and counting of ballots; no other person shall in any manner interfere. After counting, the Emergency Town Meeting Committee shall make a public declaration of the outcome of the vote. No ballot shall be received and counted after the outcome of the vote has been declared. A tie vote shall be resolved by a majority vote of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee. In the event of a tie vote of the Emergency Town Meeting Committee, the Ordinance shall be deemed to have been defeated.

Section 609. Effect of the Vote. If a majority of registered electors casting votes at the Emergency Town Meeting vote "no," the proposed Ordinance shall not take effect in Highland Township. If a majority of registered electors casting votes at the Meeting vote "yes," the proposed Ordinance shall immediately take effect in Highland Township. If a majority of registered electors casting votes at the Meeting vote "yes," the Township Board of Supervisors shall then take the necessary steps for the Ordinance to appear as a proposed amendment to the existing Highland Township Home Rule Charter at the next available general, municipal, or primary election. If a majority of registered electors casting votes at the Meeting vote "yes," the Ordinance shall remain in effect only until the electors in Highland Township have the opportunity to vote on whether or not to amend the existing Charter with the Ordinance.

ARTICLE VII – CHARTER AMENDMENT

Section 701. Amendment. No proposed amendment to this Charter shall be withheld from the people's consideration on the basis that existing legal authority may consider the substance of the amendment to be "illegal" or "unconstitutional." Proposed amendments may only be withheld from the people's consideration if they have the effect of denying, abridging, or removing the rights of people, natural communities, or ecosystems, as recognized by this Charter. Amendments to this Charter shall be adopted pursuant to Pennsylvania law governing the amendment of Home Rule Charters.

Section 702. Severability. The provisions of this Charter are severable. If any court decides that any section, clause, sentence, part, or provision of this Charter is illegal, invalid, or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect, impair, or invalidate any of the remaining sections, clauses, sentences, parts, or provisions of the Charter. This Charter would have been enacted without the invalid sections.

ARTICLE VIII – CALL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

Section 801. State and Federal Constitutional Changes. Through the adoption of this Charter, the people of Highland Township call for amendment of the Pennsylvania Constitution and the federal Constitution to expressly recognize a right of local community self-government free from governmental restriction, certain types of governmental preemption, or nullification by corporate "rights" and powers.
