Re: *Wayne Land and Mineral Group, LLC v. Delaware River Basin
Commission, et al.*, No. 3:16-cv-00897-RDM

Dear Judge Mariani:

I am writing to promptly inform the Court that today the Delaware River Basin Commission (“DRBC”) adopted final regulations prohibiting high volume hydraulic fracturing in hydrocarbon bearing rock formations within the Delaware River Basin. The regulations and accompanying materials are available at the following link to the Commission’s website, https://www.nj.gov/drbc/about/regulations/final-rule_hvhf.html. DRBC is reviewing the impact of these regulations on the present litigation and will inform the Court of DRBC’s view.

Respectfully,
