ORDER

Scheduling conference held this day with Court and counsel for all parties participating. The parties shall submit proposed protective orders within 14 days, proposed plaintiffs' fact sheets within 12 days, and memoranda on disputed discovery categories within 14 days, all after meeting and conferring on those matters to try to achieve consensus. The parties shall report to the court on the status of plaintiffs' proposed master complaint for crop damage within seven days. Defendants' objections to plaintiffs' filing of a master complaint for antitrust violations are overruled. The next scheduling conference is set for Friday, June 1, 2018, at 10:00 a.m..

So ordered this 18th day of April, 2018.
