Definitions:

A. Socially Disadvantaged Farmer or Rancher:

A socially disadvantaged farmer or rancher is a farmer or rancher who is a member of a group whose members have been subject to racial, ethnic, or gender prejudice because of their identity as members of a group without regard to their individual qualities. Groups include: American Indians or Alaskan Natives, Asians or Asian Americans, Blacks or African Americans, Native Hawaiians or other Pacific Islanders, Hispanics, and women.

For legal entities requesting to be considered Socially Disadvantaged, the majority interest must be held by socially disadvantaged individuals.

B. Limited Resource Farmer or Rancher:

A limited resource farmer or rancher is a farmer or rancher that meets the criteria for both of the following:

A producer whose direct or indirect gross farm sales do not exceed the amount in Table 1 below in each of the 2 calendar years that precede the complete taxable year before the relevant program year, adjusted upwards in later years for any general inflation, and

Table 1: Direct and Indirect Gross Sales
Program Year	Corresponding Years	Amount
2012	2009 and 2010	$163,200
2013	2010 and 2011	$172,800
2014	2011 and 2012	$176,800
2015 and subsequent years		See http://www.lrftool.sc.egov.usda.gov 1/

1/ See tool for annual increase due to general inflation rate

A producer whose total household income was at or below the national poverty level for a family of four in each of the same 2 previous years reference in paragraph (1) of this definition.

A limited resource farmer or rancher status can be determined using the web site available through the Limited Resource Farmer and Rancher Online Self-Determination Tool through National Resource and Conservation Service at http://www.lrftool.sc.egov.usda.gov/.

For legal entities requesting to be considered Limited Resource Farmer or Rancher, the sum of gross sales and household income must be considered for all members.

Note: This definition is not applicable to FLP.

C. Beginning Farmer or Rancher:

A beginning farmer or rancher is an individual or entity for which both of the following are true;

- The farmer or rancher, entity or joint operation has not operated a farm or ranch for more than 10 years.
- The farmer or rancher materially and substantially participates in the operation.

For legal entities to be considered a Beginning Farmer or Rancher, all members are related by blood or marriage; and all the members are beginning farmers or ranchers.

Note: This definition is not inclusive of all FLP requirements.
